

FLORIDA REVIEW

May 4, 2012

Eclectic Elements Keeps Fashion Trends Top of Mind When Providing Turnkey Interior Design Services

PROFILES

Celebrating 15 years as a leader in design and furniture, Eclectic Elements continues to service its clientele from around the globe. With an eye for viewing design as a way of life Monica Suleski, founder of Eclectic Elements, provides high profiled clients and local residences a turnkey operation.

Eclectic Elements is your one stop luxury living destination with a dynamic array of in stock luxury furnishings and decorative accessories. The company has three prominent divisions that include a full service interior design firm, furniture rentals for real estate and production staging and a division that offers fully furnished luxury waterfront estates available for rentals. Located in Coral Gables, the expansive 20,000 square foot showroom features hundreds of styles of furniture. With the current real estate influx business continues to flourish for this eclectic entrepreneur.

Envisioning design as a way of life, Eclectic Elements is dedicated to creating private backdrops that are aesthetically pleasing for its owner. With her savvy design technique and her highly experienced team of interior designers, Monica is able to transform a home into a luxury modern residence in just days!

Known by her clients as a visionary entrepreneur in design, Monica's mission is to construct multidimensional spaces that blur the line between fashion, art, and interior design. Her business was built on the philosophy of creating unique and dynamic environments which redefine indoor and outdoor living. Monica's designs have graced homes of high profile clientele that include designers, architectural firms, Fortune 500 companies and notable celebrities such as Lebron James, Michael Mann and Lil Wayne. Her eye for design has also contributed to popular television and movies production studios such as MTV USA & Europe, Bravo, HGTV, CBS, ABC, Univision and Telemundo.

"My eye for fashion, art and design is showcased through my work," says Monica Suleski, founder of Eclectic Elements. "I maintain a loyal clientele and welcome new exciting opportunities from a global audience."

For more information about Eclectic Elements please visit their website at www.eemiami.net.